Residence Narrow - Montmelo Oak

Product Description

Achieve the charm of classic solid wood but without the expensive price tag with our beautiful Residence Narrow laminate range. The narrow 157mm planks are both tough and durable and measure 10mm in thickness meaning they can handle the demands of a busy, fast-paced family home. Manufactured in Europe with an impressive AC5 durability rating that is also conveniently easy to clean and maintain. Residence Narrow is a great choice for any room in the home, or for areas with low or heavier foot traffic in equal measure which is backed by the 30-year domestic warranty. Suitable for use over underfloor heating the Vintage Chateaurange has a thermal conductivity rating of 0,084 m²K/W so it can help warm up rooms around the home in an energy-sufficient way.
