Glazed Teal Subway Tile

Range Description

Light in colour. Gentle in form. Islay Glazed Teal Subway Tile offers a pale, powdery blue softened further by a satin-matt finish. Its rectangular format lends itself to clean, uncomplicated layouts, making the hue feel even more ethereal. Use in soft tonal pairings-off-whites, blonde woods, muted stone-to enhance a sense of calm. Lay vertically to echo falling light or staggered for quiet movement across a wall. Ideal for bathrooms or light-filled entryways where structure and softness need to coexist.
