

Studio Cottage Oak Brushed & Oiled

Product Description

Tired of the same old boring flooring? Our Studio Cottage Oak is a fantastic engineered wood flooring with a deep and rich colour palette providing a staggering display of shades and natural beauty. The 11mm plywood core is extremely durable and strong, while the 3mm wear layer of oak is perfectly suited for a busy property. The top 3mm layer has been oiled to bring out its best features and to offer you an amazing canvas for your current decor, while the overall 14mm thickness ensures extra durability for your floor.
